

A large portrait of Robert Plant with long, wavy brown hair and a goatee, smiling. He is framed by a wreath of red and yellow autumn leaves. To his left is a colorful illustration of a circus clown in a red top hat and red-and-white polka-dot outfit, holding a glowing blue magic wand. To his right is a small illustration of a cat in a blue and white striped outfit, playing a trumpet. The background is a textured, light blue-grey.
